HMS Income Fund Announces NuStep Investment

Deal Marks 23rd Directly Sourced Co-investment with Main Street Capital Corporation

HOUSTON, February 10, 2017 -- HMS Income Fund, Inc. ("HMS"), a non-traded business development company, today announced it has completed a $8.2 million first-lien, senior secured term debt and direct equity co-investment with the parent of its investment sub-adviser, Main Street Capital Corporation ("Main Street") (NYSE: MAIN), a publicly traded business development company, to facilitate the majority recapitalization of NuStep, Inc. ("NuStep"). NuStep is the leading manufacturer of recumbent cross-trainers focused primarily on the physical therapy, physical rehabilitation and active aging markets.

Headquartered in Ann Arbor, Michigan, NuStep serves customers across a variety of end markets, including physical therapy and rehabilitation clinics, senior living communities, fitness centers, hospitals, retirement communities and individual consumers. NuStep manufactures all of its products at its manufacturing facilities in Ann Arbor and sells its products throughout the United States and across a wide variety of international markets.

About HMS Income Fund

HMS is a publicly registered, non-traded business development company sponsored by Hines Interests Limited Partnership ("Hines"), an international investment management firm. The primary investment objective of HMS is to generate current income through debt and equity investments primarily in lower middle market and middle market companies. Its secondary objective is to generate long-term capital appreciation through such equity and equity related investments, including warrants, convertible securities and other rights to acquire equity securities. HMS's business is managed by its investment adviser, HMS Adviser LP, an affiliate of Hines, and its sub-adviser, MSC Adviser I, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Main Street. About Main Street Capital

Main Street (www.mainstreetcapital.com) is a principal investment firm that provides long-term debt and equity capital to lower middle market companies and debt capital to middle market companies. Main Street's portfolio investments are typically made to support management buyouts, recapitalizations, growth financings, re-financings and acquisitions of companies that operate in diverse industry sectors. Main Street seeks to partner with entrepreneurs, business owners and management teams and generally provides "one stop" financing alternatives within its lower middle market portfolio. Main Street's lower middle market companies generally have annual revenues between $10 million and $150 million. Main Street's middle market debt investments are made in businesses that are generally larger in size than its lower middle market portfolio companies.

Main Street's common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") under the symbol "MAIN." In addition, Main Street has outstanding 6.125% Notes due 2023, which trade on the NYSE under the symbol "MSCA."
